SUPREME COURT RULES FAVOR OF MRS. SAUCIER; PAYMENT LIFE POLICY

First Installment Had Not Been Tendered And Company Refused to Pay Off—Court Ruled Policy Was Sold On Deferred First Payment Regardless of Provisions of Contract.

The Mississippi Supreme Court ruled Monday that insurance companies must sustain the contracts of their general agents regardless of contrary provisions in the insurance policies. Heretofore it was the general impression that provisions in a policy stood regardless of other representations but the high court has ruled otherwise.

The case in question is all the more interesting since it comes from Hancock county and the complainant is a resident of Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Carmelita M. Saucier, before her marriage Carmelita Loiacono, and widow of Antoine Saucier, had brought the suit through her attorney, Lucien M. Gex, against the Life & Casualty Company of Tennessee on an insurance policy for $1,000 upon which the first premium had not been paid.

Judge White, in the circuit court had dismissed the suit on demurrer and Mrs. Saucier appealed.

The record showed Mrs. Saucier's husband took out a policy which became effective Oct. 1, 1935, and he died Oct. 22 of the same year. Though the first premium had not been paid, it was shown that the general agent had assured Saucier he would be credited for the first premium and the insurance would be in full force and effect.

A provision in the policy said only executive officers of the company were authorized to waive the first premium and unless it was paid the policy was void.

The Supreme Court said in reversing the suit:

"A general agent of an insurance company who has authority to deliver and receive payment of the premium has power to waive repayment of the premium although the policy contained a condition to the company."

It will be remembered Saucier had been on a New Orleans trip in his truck and was suddenly taken ill and died from a heart affection.

While it is true he had not paid any amount on the policy during the 21 days that had elapsed between issuance of policy and date of his death the agent had specially stipulated such payment would be deferred and it is said, the policy was taken by the late Saucier on that specific condition and in all good faith. The gist of the decision is that insurance companies are held responsible for the acts of their agents.

CO. JAIL BUILDING FINISHED

In Moderate Sense and Within Means of Public Moneys Is Last Word In Plan and Construction.

Hancock county's new jail building is fully finished. The last touches to the building are accomplished and the interior of the premises is in every way completed.

The county is justly proud of this accomplishment with the WPA aid, for the jail ranks first in every particular. Every sanitary, ventilating and lighting arrangement has been duly attended to and that in the most modern and satisfactory manner.

However, the jail as yet is not ready for occupancy awaiting the arrival of cots and bedding. This done the inmates due there will be housed and the key officially turned on for the first time.

Superintendent Charles Wells, in charge of construction, is justly proud of the work. He says the job was carried out under the most pleasant working and business circumstances. There was no friction nor the slightest untoward incident to mar the operation of construction.

The old brick storehouse building which the Board of Supervisors constructed some years ago has been taken down and as soon as the driveway will have been hard surfaced which are now in process of construction the entire premises will be given the final touch of leveling and raking and green swards of grass will further ornament the county courthouse buildings and grounds.

BAY-WAVELAND GARDENS LURE AND CHARM THE MANY

The Garden Reporter Finds Much to Attract And Admire Here and There.

What could be more delightful than the sight of the oyster fleet in full sail against the horizon, as we glance up from our work in our gardens, these early spring days? Or feel the spray of the waves dashing against the seawall, as March leaves us with a belated bluster and fuss.

How splendid if each beach owner would beautify their strip along the seawall, with grass and flowers. Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Horton have been improving their embankment. These are surely days for brushing up.

The air along every path and by-way is redolent with the odor of Chinaberry blossoms and sweet honeysuckle. The wooded road of Second street is always overrun with this lovely vine each spring.

The claw foot vine, so called because of its clinging tendencies, is showering with gold, the summer house and fence of Mr. Allison home on North Beach. It is also sending its blossoming tendrils along the fence in the Zerr garden.

An echo is a fascinating feature of the garden at Boyd's Nest on Nicholson avenue. We discovered this as we talked across the tall blue iris along the side yard fence.

One of the most beautiful of sights, just now, is the exquisite lavender bignonia vine, which is covering the entire front porch of Boyd's Nest. Another one of these vines is seen on the Lorch porch.

The flowers in Mrs. Boyd's garden are all so healthy and luxuriant looking one feels they must get the right sort of food and drink. Paul Scarlet and Columbus roses, dogwood, verberna, iris; all seem at their best.

The Paul Scarlet roses draped along the white picket fence of the J. T. Prowel home in Waveland, are an exquisite sight.

Some of the most perfect specimens of the Paul Scarlet are found in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Terry in Waveland Beach Estates, flaunting their beauty high above the white fence and archway of the garden gate. This garden is one of the more charming smaller gardens in the vicinity.

Within the bounds of the low white picket fence we found azaleas, dogwood, wood fern, Easter lilies, honeysuckle, hibiscus and night blooming jasmine. A garden nook in the rear is furnished with comfortable chairs and umbrella table, under a heavy canopy of wisteria which covers the entire back garden. A red bud tree in the front garden attracts much attention from passersby.

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice, at Bay St. Louis, Miss., under Act of Mar. 3, 1879.

The Jackson News says "Members of the Mississippi delegation in Congress are pulling hard to prevent abandonment of any of the CCC camps in the state, scheduled to happen within a few weeks. There are 31 camps in the state and they form one of the most worthwhile features of the New Deal program. During the past year CCC boys have planted more than 35,000,000 trees in state and Federal parks and forest reserves."

It takes but little reflection to realize that we live in a city well worthy of one calling the place home, with all the meaning that the sacred and precious term implies.

"WELLS FARGO" FILM TRIBUTE TO PIONEERS

The story of America's "Lifeline of Empire," the "Wells Fargo Trail," first highway to connect the East and Far West, forms the dramatic background for "Wells Fargo," the screen romance with Joel McCrea, Frances Dee and Bob Burns which opens at the A. & G. Theater Sunday and Monday.

Painted on an heroic canvas, "Wells Fargo" traces the history of the opening of the West from the time of the discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill until the close of the War between the States with the express business of Henry Wells and William Fargo which has developed into today's Railway Express Agency, forming the background.

For romance the picture follows the love story of a typical Western family, headed by McCrea and Miss Dee, who are married at the beginning of the picture. Their fortunes closely linked with the expansion of the Wells Fargo business and the winning of the West, from the main theme of the picture.

In producing "Wells Fargo" it was the purpose of Paramount Pictures to pay tribute to the expressmen who played such an important part in the American history. These men were the first on the scene when gold was discovered in California, to carry news and supplies into remote mining camps and "digging" and, on the return trip to carry out the gold for shipment to the East. The dangers they encountered, from Indians, bandits and Nature, supply the picture with inspirational appeal and thrills.

Wells Fargo & Company was formed in the East but appeared immediately in San Francisco when the cry of gold went up. Its pony express riders and messengers and later, its stagecoaches opened and maintained the trails into the Far West until the coming of the locomotive, years after the end of the War between the States.

Bob Burns, who has played nothing but comedy in motion pictures, appears in his first "straight" role in "Wells Fargo," that of philosophical Indian scout who befriends McCrea when he first comes into the West to open the trails for the Wells Fargo stage.

BOY SCULPTOR WINNING NATIONAL RECOGNITION.

In a tiny room adjoining his father's grocery store at Greenville, 27-year-old Leon Koury fashions the strong and accurate figures that constitute Mississippi's latest bid for recognition in the field of sculpture.

Self-taught with but three years of experience behind him Mr. Koury gave up the yen he had for writing and turned to sculpture under the guidance of Poet Will Percy.

First recognition came a few months ago when Mr. Koury's

"Negro Boy" was presented at the National Exhibition of American Art in New York. So impressed was Malvina Hoffman outstanding American sculptor that she sent him her own tools to work with. Already Koury figures have been sold from New York to California. Looking to the everyday life about him for his sources and his models, Mr. Koury delights most in negro heads and figures. In the photograph he is completing final touches on his latest work.

SOON TIME TO PLANT SORGHUM.

The time is very near at hand for the planting of sorghum, to be used in the making of ensilage which is an excellent feed during the winter months for dairy cows as well as other cattle. Any farmer who expects to plant sorghum is asked to call on J. A. Bozeman, county agent, relative to the purchase of seed, proper fertilizers, and planting dates. There is one county in the state where sorghum is being grown extensively, now has on hand 16,000 of re-cleaned Texas ribbon cane seed for sale at 4c per pound. These seed are packed in even weight 100 pound bags and are being offered for sale by the best producers of sorghum in that particular county. Experimenters have been deducted in the production of sorghum and results have shown that it can be produced and put in the trench silo at a rate as low as 1.97 per ton. The dairy farmers of this county could do nothing better than to plant a few acres of sorghum and fill a trench silo. This feed comes in at the season of the year when grazing conditions are almost cut out therefore, a feed so succulent as the sorghum can be put to a mighty good use, thus enabling the dairy farmer to materially reduce his feed cost at this season of the year.

—Miss Welch has on display an assortment of personally selected Chas Daly Easter cards.

—Mr. L. P. Caissac, the local photographer in State street, is not only an artist in his profession inclined to the artistic and beautiful but as grower of roses well exceeds in the pursuit that he has chosen as a past time and for physical exercise and diversion. Perhaps one of the smallest gardens in town has more flowers that grow and blossom to perfection than ordinarily. His roses just now attract unusual attention, all of select variety, bush and climbing. During the winter his camellias were admired by many. In addition to roses Mr. Caissac and Mrs. Caissac as well who co-operates in the concerns of the garden, has quite a variety of plants. It has been said the success of any garden is found in the profusion of blossom. This being the rule, then our neighbors are very successful for they have beautiful flowers all the year round—in season.

Sincerely,

MRS. MURRAY T. BANGARD.

Former Bay St. Louis Hotel Man Dies at Hattiesburg Sunday.

Funeral services were held at Hattiesburg Monday for Albert S. Bordelon, 56, a native of Marks-ville, La., who was taken ill and died while visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Prayton.

Mr. Bordelon died Sunday following a stroke of paralysis and a subsequent heart attack.

Final rites were conducted at Sacred Heart Catholic church. Interment followed in the city cemetery.

Mr. Bordelon, who was in the hotel business in Birmingham, Ala., Port Arthur, Texas, and Jackson, Mississippi, and Bay St. Louis, Miss., is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lula Prayton Bordelon; two sisters, Mrs. C. D. Hobson, Texarkana, Ark., and Mrs. R. C. Lacour, Colfax, La., and one brother, Henry Bordelon, Marks-ville.

Mr. Bordelon is well remembered in Bay St. Louis. He leased and operated the Hotel Weston for a year and because of heart ailment at the time relinquished the business.

DeLisle Lenten Services.

Last Thursday night the Catholic church at DeLisle was filled to the doors. Rev. Father Fahey spoke beautifully and instructively to the large crowd on the Sacrament of Extreme Unction.

The weather was admirable just like on March 10 when Father Hennessey, S. J. spoke there so touchingly on the "Five Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary" and also such agreeable weather when the Rev. Father Lilley, C. M., of Long Beach visited and spoke on the Teachings of Christ.

On these three nights there were more than 200 persons present, something remarkable when the Catholic population at DeLisle is about 135.

Next week on March 31, Rev. Father Weber, S. V. D. is going to preach and if the weather is favorable it is expected a large assembly will gather, all for the honor and glory of God.

Miss Eunice Nicaise sang beautifully the "O Salutaris" of Bordeuse and Mrs. Daisy Keel executed admirably the Santa Maria of Prof. A. Zohlen dedicated to his friend, Rev. Father Sorin.

Lenten services are followed by such large crowds this year that it made us remember the visits of the famous Father Duchaussois, O. T. M.

At 8 o'clock Mass also on Sunday we had a fine assistance, all eager to hear the word of God.

Of local interest to Bay-Waveland was the formal announcement in the New Orleans Sunday press of Miss June Margaret Benedict, of that city, to Mr. William James Curry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Curry, of Napoleon avenue, New Orleans. The wedding is planned to take place in June.

The groom-elect, is a Tulane man, well-known in Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, not only as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curry but equally as well as the grand-son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Briede, of New Orleans and Coleman avenue, Waveland. Miss Benedict is socially prominent and the wedding will claim much interest this summer.

TWO-DAY HOUSE PARTY ENJOYS STAY IN BAY-WAVELAND.

Mrs. Joseph Chalona, of New Orleans, entertained a house party of friends from New Orleans Wednesday through Thursday, with bridge as the indoor pastime and motoring as a diversion.

On Thursday noon the party, which included members of Mrs. Stoutz's Waveland house-party, 17 ladies in number, enjoyed a luncheon at The Answer, which Mrs. Bourgeois specially prepared for the occasion.

The party returned to New Orleans Thursday evening, delighted with their two-day stay on the Coast shores.

HOUSE PARTY HOME FROM HOSPITABLE LAND OF THE TECHE.

Miss L. C. Del Bondio and party returned home last Friday night after their week's sojourn in the Land of Evangeline, on the Teche, where they were on a house party on a sugar plantation at St. Martinsville. The party reports lavish and uninterrupted entertainment by the hospitable and gracious friends of that section, every moment taken with some form of special entertainment or sidetraps. The country of that section is at its best during this time of the season. Trips to Lafayette, Marksville and other sections were included.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Partridge, former Bay St. Louis residents but now of New Orleans, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gertrude, to Mr. Gideon Townsend, Jr., of New Orleans.

The happy forthcoming event is announced to occur in June, at New Orleans.

Mrs. A. C. Ennix and sister, Miss Josie Miller, delightfully entertained a group of ladies at their home on North Beach Boulevard, Tuesday afternoon in general reception and social past time. This informal afternoon, like previous such occasions by these two charming ladies, easily proved one of genuine pleasure.

Handsomely engraved announcements have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ballard announcing the recent marriage of their daughter, Ruth Marshall and Mr. Charles Frederic Seemann, of New Orleans, which event occurred on Thursday, October 28.

Mrs. Sidney W. Prague will leave Bay St. Louis shortly to resume her residence in Chicago, where Mr. Prague's business headquarters are established. Mrs. Prague and children have been visiting at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. L. M. Gex the past year or more. Her presence will be missed in local social circles.

Mrs. J. H. Bonck, who came out from New Orleans the past week-end to spend a week with Bay St. Louis friends, and is registered at The Answer, entertained at an interesting bridge-foursome Wednesday afternoon. Her guests for this occasion were Mrs. E. C. Carrere, Mrs. Edmund F. Fahey and Mrs. Alice Buckley.

Mrs. Hubert E. De Ben and daughter, Melanie, returned home this week from a month's stay at Palm Beach, Florida, where they enjoyed the gayeties of the social season at that resort.
